T-SPOT has a website!

The website is www.tspotshop.com and I update it often. One of the latest news is the picture of happy knitters on my porch celebrating the World Wide Knit in Public Day.

® NEW THINGS! ®

There are too many new chocolates and yarns since my last update. I will write about only the most exciting ones.

POEMS 100% wool

This yarn is soft, has wonderful long color stripes, and would work for any worsted project – just knit/crochet, or felt.

Felted Jewelry

Really cute and romantic needle-felted necklaces and pins. You could make some, or just pick one up from T-SPOT.

TAPESTRY

Acrylic/Wool. Washable

Perfect for heavy weight socks, baby projects, or anything you want to just throw in the washer and dryer. Works out like fair isle with no extra effort on your part.

New baskets, totes and handbags. Fair Trade, Made in Vietnam

KNIT NIGHTS and other events are listed in the calendar:

How does free yarn sound to you?

At T-SPOT, I love having knit-up or crocheted samples, and I know you like seeing what a skein of yarn can turn into before buying it.

The problem is I can only knit so fast. I need other test knitters' and crocheters' help. No test chocolate eaters needed at this time, sorry.

Here is the short description of my model maker program:

*We agree on the pattern and yarn to use – has to be something I need, but also something you want to keep.

*You buy the yarn and pattern here, at full price.

*You make the garment within agreed time frame.

*If the model is up to my liking, you get store credit for the amount of yarn purchase (not for pattern or needles), and I keep the model for 4 months.

*Then you take the model home, and it's yours.

Would you like to do that?
